CANADIAN WHEELCHAIR FOUNDATION
FONDATION CHAISE ROULANTE CANADA

CHARLOTTE STANGE, MPA
Board of Directors

Charlotte Stange has been involved with the Canadian Wheelchair Foundation in various capacities since it was first established and joined the board in 2007. She had previously participated in several fundraising efforts benefitting the CWF as a member of the Lower Fraser Valley Rotaract Club from 2004-2006.

Charlotte's past non-profit experiences include being a member of the Aids Committee of Ottawa's social enterprise committee, as well as being involved with multiple student groups at Carleton University, where she received an undergraduate degree in Public Affairs and Policy Management. While completing graduate studies at the University of Victoria she represented the Masters in Public Administration program on the Graduate Students' Society.

Charlotte has been employed by the Federal Government of Canada since 2009 and is currently directly involved with implementing the citizenship program at the Department of Citizenship and Immigration Canada. Charlotte is an active participant and volunteer with the Government of Canada's Workplace Charitable Campaign (GCWCC), an annual fundraising drive held by all departments in the federal government across the country.

Charlotte lives in Vancouver with her husband where they are excitedly anticipating the arrival of their first child.
