CANADIAN WHEELCHAIR FOUNDATION
FONDATION CHAISE ROULANTE CANADA

Introducing Joy Kilback

If you have called our office you have likely spoken to Joy Kilback, but with our partners spread around the globe, few have had the opportunity to meet her.

Joy is the hub of the Canadian Wheelchair Foundation, in the way that the central part of a wheel is essential for smooth operation and efficient action.

When you meet Joy you quickly recognize her deep devotion to the foundation's vision and mission. She is highly dedicated to our partners at every level, sharing respect for others with her calm and professional approach. Her previous administrative experiences at Vancouver Children's Hospital, with real estate conveyancing and as a legal assistant have been invaluable in advancing the foundation's success. She is meticulous in the execution of a broad range of responsibilities that include donor reporting and communications.

Joy was born and raised in Vancouver and now resides in South Surrey with her family, including two grown sons. She has always been actively involved in the community, especially with the White Rock Figure Skating club.

We are extremely grateful for Joy's invaluable contributions since she became part of our small team and hope you will introduce yourself to Joy in the near future.
